Important events for union representatives

General meetings

The General Meeting is held every 3 years before the end of May. The intervening years shall be held by the Board of Regulators.

The general meeting is the supreme authority of Finansforbundet in Danske Bank. In addition to deciding on the financial statements and electing chairman, members of the board of directors and alternates and accountants, the general meeting discusses the work and topics of the circle that are important to the members' everyday lives.

The next General Meeting will be held on 8 May 2025.

Seminar for union representatives

A TR seminar is held annually over two days.

At the seminar, the union representatives will be given the opportunity to strengthen their skills and networks by participating in professional and social activities.

Please note that many union representative areas choose to hold Union representative meetings on the day before the seminar.

The next TR seminar will be held on 4 – 5 September 2025.

Discussions with the ELT

Each year, open debate is held between the union representatives in Danske Bank and the ELT of Danske Bank.

On this day, the Group Management will be presenting current focus areas in the Danske Bank Group, after which there is debate with ELT-representatives from the individual business units about the development and current agendas.

The next debate with the ELT will be held on 3 March 2025.

Meetings of members

Finansforbundet in Danske Bank holds a number of member meetings throughout the year.

The members may meet both union representatives and regional committee members in open debate.

Meetings will be held when the local union representative and the members need to debate working conditions or developments in the sector.

The local union representative will invite and handle the event and the agenda, just as the local subjects are the focal point.

In addition, the regional committee may arrange member meetings when the need arises.

National meeting of Finansforbundet

Every three years, Finansforbundet holds a country meeting.

All sectors in Finansforbundet will participate with their own delegation, which is appointed locally. The Board of Directors is automatically selected for the delegation, while the other participants from Finansforbundet in Danske Bank are usually found among the senior union representatives.

At the National Congress of Finansforbundet, the delegates will determine which focus areas and policies for which to work in the coming three years. The National Congress also elects the chairmanship for a three-year term.

At the national meeting in 2023 Dorrit Brandt was elected chairman, while Jakob Thorgaard (left) and Steen Lund Olsen were elected deputy chairman (picture).

The next national meeting will be held on 22 – 25 September 2026.

Finansforbundet in Danske Bank's collaboration with Danske Bank

The local cooperation between union representatives and leaders

A good cooperation between leaders and union representatives is good for the Group and employees alike. A good local relationship with leaders can be crucial to your participation as a union representative.

Once a year, you will have a talk with your leader about your function as union representative and your collaboration. We call this a §8 interview. In this conversation, the framework for your union representative work and expectations for the cooperation between the union representative and the immediate superior are aligned.

The Group sends you and your manager an e-mail with a link to a interview form. The form is saved on the HR platform.

You can read more about the union representative work locally in section 6 of the collective agreement, remember that TR work must be registered under the registration code 3855.

Group Cooperation committee

The tasks of the Group Cooperation Committee (SU) are to discuss, among other things:

- General matters of importance to working and staff conditions in the Group.
- The Group's financial situation (current information, key figures, etc.)
- Employment situation etc. in the Group.

The SU consists of 14 persons: Seven representatives from the management team, six employee representatives from Finansforbundet in Danske Bank and a representative from the staff organisation in Danica Pension.

The six representatives from Finansforbundet in Danske Bank are: Kirsten Ebbe Brich, Bente Bang, Susanne Arboe, Ida Schrøder Kilde, Frank Fredslund Nielsen and Peter Gaardsdal Sørensen.

International cooperation

Danske Bank and the entire financial sector are becoming increasingly internationalised. Therefore, Finansforbundet in Danske Bank is involved in international cooperation in different ways and levels:

Finansforbundet in Danske Bank is participating in:

- UNI – Union Network International
- NFU – Nordiska Finansanställdas Union

Finansforbundet i Danske Bank participates in:

- Danske unions
- EWC – European works Council

Danske Unions
