

TALK TO NICOLAI

WHEN YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR WORK LIFE

Nicolai is a union representative in Aarhus and has colleagues in several different countries. His in-depth knowledge of the collective agreement and employee rights is a great help to his co-workers. As a union representative, Nicolai is driven by the desire to make a real difference for his colleagues – both locally and internationally.

See what a union representative can do for you:

TALK TO NYNNE

WHEN YOU WANT BETTER WELL-BEING

Nynne is a union representative in Roskilde. She is happy to share all the benefits of the collective agreement and explain why it is important to protect them. As a union representative, Nynne is driven by the desire to make a difference for the members, for example by focusing on well-being. Good well-being is a prerequisite for a good working life.

See what a union representative can do for you:

TALK TO NADJA

WHEN YOU WANT TO BE PART OF THE COMMUNITY

As a union representative in Copenhagen, Nadja works to ensure that employees' voices are heard. She is especially passionate about strengthening the sense of community in the workplace. With many years of experience behind her, She is ready to offer guidance and support whenever needed.

See what a union representative can do for you:

